SUBJECT: Annual Report

The Lucile Elliott Scholarship Committee reports that there were a total of eight applications submitted for the Lucile Elliott Scholarship. One application was received after May 15, 1972, the closing date for receipt of applications and a second was withdrawn by the applicant. Accordingly, only six applications were considered for the scholarship and the scholarship was awarded to Mrs. Harriet S. Tuch of the University of Miami Law School Library staff.

The chairman believes that the increased number of applications over last year was due largely to a more timely notification of the scholarship; he also believes that the application forms should include a request for formal education background. During the annual convention the committee is meeting to develop further guidelines concerning the criteria that should be considered in awarding the annual scholarship to applicants.
